SCORE ONE FOR HARRISBURG.

Bad Base Running Lost the Game for Scranton.

Scranton might have defeated Harrisburg at the park yesterday, had better judgment been shown in coaching Dick Phelan when he was on third in the eighth inning, or had Long Tom Flanaghan, when he went to the plate in the same inning with his favorite chunk of oak in his hand, been able to bat the ball somewhere beside into the hands of a fielder, things might have been different. They're not, and there comes the rub. The game throughout was marked by good, steady playing on both sides, if the first two innings be excepted. Old Spiral Spring Huston did the twirling for the visitors and succeeded in keeping the hits well scattered. Saven singles and a double were secured by "our pets."

Flanaghan, he of the hard luck, occupied the centre of the diamond for Scranton, and was touched up for six singles and three doubles. He struck out two men and gave two bases on

The clubs began the game in a demoralized kind of way. Eagan opened for Harrisburg with a single, and Hus-ton and Meany followed with singles, Esgan and Huston scoring. On Smink's nit Sales crossed the marble, maxing four runs the visitors had scored in the first innings.

Although the home club could do nothing in the first inning in the second it started in to cut down the visitor's lead and succeeded in piling up three runs. Another one was obtained in the fourth, tieing the score. After the third Scranton was unable to get a man across the plate. In the seventh on a single from Smink and a double by Wente the winning run was scored for Harrisburg by Smink. Score in
